

Proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Member's Bill to protect war memorials by creating a specific offence of desecrating a war memorial.

The consultation runs from 27 September 2023 to 19 December 2023

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Fully opposed

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Please explain the reasons for your response.

Vandalism is vandalism no matter what it is on, if we start with war memorials then do we start looking at religious buildings/statues and eventually end up with different levels.

We already treat age's differently and use background reports so if we were being honest this would make no difference.

Q2. The proposed Bill aims to improve the protection of war memorials by creating the specific offence of desecration of a war memorial. Do you think legislation is required, or are there are other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively?

No, legislation is not required

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on whether the creation of a specific offence of desecration of a war memorial would be an effective deterrent.

It won't be an effective deterrent, there is so many punishments depending on age, background, previous behaviour already that two people vandalising the same monument would get different punishments already.

Q3. What do you think the definition of a 'war memorial' should be?

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on the proposed definitions set out on pages 7 and 8 of the consultation document.

Vandalism is vandalism, you can't make one unique law without then doing the same for others

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the level of punishment for the offence of desecration of a war memorial should be subject to a scale which reflects the severity of the offence?

Fully opposed

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on first offenders, particularly young people, attending education programmes or community service, the scale of potential fines and prison sentencing options.

We already have so many things in place that would mean two people getting punished for doing the same thing are treated differently that this would just muddy the water even more and that is before the judge decides how he/she feels that day.

This would just add up the inconsistency.

Q5. In England and Wales, the maximum sentence for desecrating a memorial is 10 years imprisonment. What, in your view, should the maximum sentence be under the proposed legislation for desecrating a war memorial?

Other [Please specify below]

Q5. In England and Wales, the maximum sentence for desecrating a memorial is 10 years imprisonment. What, in your view, should the maximum sentence be under the proposed legislation for desecrating a war memorial?

Please explain the reasons for your response

Use the laws we already have.

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the new offence should be limited to war memorials, as opposed to memorials more generally?

Unsure

Please explain the reasons for your response

I don't think the law should be changed

Financial Implications

Q7. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

some increase in costs

Please explain the reasons for your response, including who you would expect to feel the financial impact of the proposal, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could be delivered more cost-effectively.

The police would take longer especially at the start preparing paperwork for the PF showing that it met the new legislation

Equalities

Q8. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your response and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

No Response

Sustainability

Q9. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your response, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

No Response

General

Q10. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

With police numbers dropping and current sentencing rules especially for under 25's (the age group I suspect this is aimed at) this would see more paperwork with officers off the street only for nothing to happen in the end meaning the public have lost policing hours.
I find it strange that you would do all of this without actually telling us how many offences have been committed on war memorials over a period of time.
