

Proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill

Introduction

A proposal for a Member's Bill to protect war memorials by creating a specific offence of desecrating a war memorial.

The consultation runs from 27 September 2023 to 19 December 2023

All those wishing to respond to the consultation are strongly encouraged to enter their responses electronically through this survey. This makes collation of responses much simpler and quicker. However, the option also exists of sending in a separate response (in hard copy or by other electronic means such as e-mail), and details of how to do so are included in the member's consultation document.

Questions marked with an asterisk (*) require an answer.

All responses must include a name and contact details. Names will only be published if you give us permission, and contact details are never published – but we may use them to contact you if there is a query about your response. If you do not include a name and/or contact details, we may have to disregard your response.

Please note that you must complete the survey in order for your response to be accepted. If you don't wish to complete the survey in a single session, you can choose "Save and Continue later" at any point. Whilst you have the option to skip particular questions, you must continue to the end of the survey and press "Submit" to have your response fully recorded.

Please ensure you have read the consultation document before responding to any of the questions that follow. In particular, you should read the information contained in the document about how your response will be handled. The consultation document is available here:

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response.

To stop this horrible hate crime. For people to be punished for their assault on our war dead based on people's hateful agenda connected to their politics, nationality and religious prejudices. Enough is enough and the Scottish government should take note from the British government for a change and follow their lead on standing against this hate crime. The SNP have allowed this to go on for too long and it's a serious concern that they rush to criminalise a lot of things but not this! A hate crime is a hate crime.. it doesn't matter who it is.

Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Q2. The proposed Bill aims to improve the protection of war memorials by creating the specific offence of desecration of a war memorial. Do you think legislation is required, or are there are other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively?

Yes, legislation is required

Q3. What do you think the definition of a 'war memorial' should be?

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on the proposed definitions set out on pages 7 and 8 of the consultation document.

No Response

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the level of punishment for the offence of desecration of a war memorial should be subject to a scale which reflects the severity of the offence?

Fully supportive

Q5. In England and Wales, the maximum sentence for desecrating a memorial is 10 years imprisonment. What, in your view, should the maximum sentence be under the proposed legislation for desecrating a war memorial?

Up to 10 years

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the new offence should be limited to war memorials, as opposed to memorials more generally?

Proposal should be limited to war memorials only

Please explain the reasons for your response

All war memorials should be treated with the same set of laws despite which war or cause it might be. If it is a recognised war it should be treated with dignity and respect despite the politics behinds it.

Financial Implications

Q7. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?

no overall change in costs

Equalities

Q8. Any new law can have an impact on different individuals in society, for example as a result of their age, disability, gender re-assignment, marriage and civil partnership status, pregnancy and maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation.

What impact could this proposal have on particular people if it became law? If you do not have a view skip to next question.

Please explain the reasons for your response and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts on particular people.

Humza Yousaf "hate speech" bill has in my opinion worked well for the nationalist population of Scotland and has targeted the unionist population. His hate speech bill has been based off of nationalist bias and personal opinion.

Somehow the idea of remembering Britains war dead is seen as a unionist practice. I suppose the only people who feel like this could harm would be the militant republican element of our country and in particular Glasgow and the west of Scotland.

Sustainability

Q9. Any new law can impact on work to protect and enhance the environment, achieve a sustainable economy, and create a strong, healthy, and just society for future generations.

Do you think the proposal could impact in any of these areas? (If you do not have a view then skip to next question)

Please explain the reasons for your response, including what you think the impact of the proposal could be, and if there are any ways you think the proposal could avoid negative impacts?

Not burning war memorials probably would be a good start

General

Q10. Do you have any other additional comments or suggestions on the proposed Bill (which have not already been covered in any of your responses to earlier questions)?

End the SNP governments blatant hypocrisy and bias. Their hate speech bill is catered for their own voters safety and is only set out to punish the element of society that doesn't fit their republican narrative.

In our society destroying and burning the names of our war dead is unpublishable yet their fellow comrades are respected and justified in England. Shame on you SNP
