Q1. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposed Desecration of War Memorials (Prevention) (Scotland) Bill? (Please note, that this question is compulsory.)

Fully supportive

Q2. The proposed Bill aims to improve the protection of war memorials by creating the specific offence of desecration of a war memorial. Do you think legislation is required, or are there other ways in which the proposed Bill's aims could be achieved more effectively?

Yes, legislation is required

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on whether the creation of a specific offence of desecration of a war memorial would be an effective deterrent.

Defacing a war memorial is different from vandalism of other buildings etc. it's a direct personal attack on veterans relatives and society and should be viewed in the same way as a hate crime.

Q3. What do you think the definition of a 'war memorial' should be?

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on the proposed definitions set out on pages 7 and 8 of the consultation document.

To me a war memorial represents the graves of all people who fought and died for our country and way of life.

Q4. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the level of punishment for the offence of desecration of a war memorial should be subject to a scale which reflects the severity of the offence?

Fully supportive

Please explain the reasons for your response, including your view on first offenders, particularly young people, attending education programmes or community service, the scale of potential fines and prison sentencing options.

Increasing the punishment should be seen as a deterrent to those who would deliberately attack a memorial as an act of protest. Young people will become aware that war memorials are special when the law is enforced. Ignorance should be no excuse.

Q5. In England and Wales, the maximum sentence for desecrating a memorial is 10 years imprisonment. What, in your view, should the maximum sentence be under the proposed legislation for desecrating a war memorial?

Up to 10 years

Please explain the reasons for your response

If judges already have the power to hand out 10 year sentences, they should be compelled to exercise the power to set the example. The knowledge that severe sentences are being issued is the only deterrent.

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the new offence should be limited to war memorials, as opposed to memorials more generally?

Proposal should be limited to war memorials only

Q6. Which of the following best expresses your view of the proposal that the new offence should be limited to war memorials, as opposed to memorials more generally?

Please explain the reasons for your response

Many memorials can be seen as offensive to people with different views .eg. Political,religious, etc.
War memorials represents all race and creed and should never be targeted.

Q7. Any new law can have a financial impact which would affect individuals, businesses, the public sector, or others. What financial impact do you think this proposal could have if it became law?
